4. ACADEMIC DRESS PRODUCTION

The Vice President (Corporate Services) shall have the authority to specify the colours and types of cloth to be used in gowns from time to time so as to give best effect to the description of dress contained in sections 2 and 3 of this Resolution.

The Deputy Vice Chancellor (Engagement) shall maintain a sample of each item of academic dress provided for in this Resolution, the style and colour of which shall be the model for the production of items of academic dress.

5. AUTHORITY TO DETERMINE ELIGIBILITY TO ATTEND AN OFFICIAL CEREMONY

The Deputy Vice Chancellor (Engagement) or delegate is responsible for ensuring this policy in relation to academic dress is observed, and has the authority to advise members of the University, university graduates or graduands that where their dress does not conform in that the basic style, trimming configurations, material weights and quality of cloth significantly diverge from the standards as set out in this policy they will be ineligible to attend the ceremony.

Members of the University, university graduates or graduands may be offered the opportunity to hire appropriate dress on-site where sufficient stock is available.
